EXCEPTIONS TO CONFIDENTIALITY

1. Florida law requires our staff to report to the appropriate authorities any suspected physical, sexual or emotional abuse or neglect of a child, elderly person or disabled person.
2. If we believe you have a specific intent to harm yourself, we reserve the right to inform other family members and/or make appropriate referrals if necessary, including seeking hospitalization for you.
3. If we believe you intend to harm someone else, we will take steps to protect the intended victim, including contacting law enforcement and informing the intended victim.

If you oppose the release, the Court may require compliance with the order and information would be released.

6. These rights and exceptions to confidentiality apply to information disclosed in support groups. All group members are encouraged to keep such information confidential, but Lee's Place cannot guarantee they will do so.
7. At times, Lee's Place uses case examples of children or teens and their families in publishing journal articles, conducting professional training and in fundraising efforts. We may anonymously refer to your situation in those circumstances. However, your names will never be used without specific written approval.

1. I agree to attend my sessions regularly. I agree to call at least 24 hours in advance when I am unable to attend. I understand that I will be charged for that session without 24 hour notice of cancellation.
2. I agree to be on time for each session. It is important to those who will be dropping off and picking up a client that they do so at the appropriate times.
3. Parents agree to provide supervision for any children in the waiting area.
4. I agree to pay for each session at the time of service. If I am utilizing insurance, Lee's Place will not bill my insurance directly, but they will be happy to provide me with a receipt for payment.
5. I understand that Lee's Place therapists and staff are only available during regular business hours and that Lee's Place does NOT have 24 hour emergency phone service.
